FROM THE PRESIDENT

Some thoughts regarding the Am HaYam Purim Food Drive to benefit the Lower Cape Outreach Council Food Pantry.

For the past 20 years, Am HaYam Havurah has conducted a very successful High Holy Days Food Drive. Year after year, we collected more and more bags of food and more and more dedicated donations to purchase additional food supplies at Stop and Shop and at BJ's. From collecting the bags at the trailer drop-off to unloading the thousands of pounds of food at LCOC, volunteers participated in this endeavor with dedication and love. It was doing God's work, hearing and acting upon Isaiah's call to share our bread to feed the hungry.

Several years ago, the Havurah Board of Directors in consultation with the leadership of the Lower Cape Outreach Council made the decision to divide the cash donations received at the Annual High Holy Days Appeal into two funding streams: monetary donations received prior to Kol Nidrei would be utilized to purchase additional food items for LCOC, which would take place after the end of Yom Kippur; a second food purchase, made with donated funds received after Yom Kippur, would occur in the Spring to coincide with the Passover celebration.

Membership of Am HaYam responded to the Food Drive appeals with overwhelming generosity; however, the majority of donations made in 2018 were received prior to Kol Nidrei, thus creating an anomalous situation where only $365 is currently available for the purchase of food items in April 2019, not enough to make a difference to those who are food-insecure!

Purim, which starts March 20, 2019, is a holiday that not only requires a banquet, but also that we send gifts of good food to our friends, and help out the less fortunate in our community, as per Mordecai's specific request in the book of Esther: "And Mordecai wrote these things, and sent letters to all the Jews...that they should make them days of feasting and gladness, and of sending food one to another, and gifts to the poor." (Esther 9:20-22)

A gift of food sends a special message: "I don't want you to be hungry". To fulfil the mitzvah of providing food items to the LCOC Food Pantry and to be mindful of the needs of the poor, Am HaYam Havurah is appealing to membership to make a special Purim donation dedicated to the purchase of food items to fill the shelves of the LCOC Food Pantry thus meeting the obligation to provide support to the less fortunate. We strengthen our relationships with friends to whom we give gifts, and we strengthen the social fabric of our community by emphasizing our commitment to care for our entire community.

Please send your donations to Am HaYam, P.O. Box 1235, Brewster, MA 02631. Memo: Purim Food Drive. Thank you.

ZAMAREI HAYAM - SINGERS OF THE SEA

It has been an easy winter so far and though I am looking out at a brilliant super moon making our snow-covered yard glow in the dark, I know that March and spring will be here soon. Zamarei HaYam will have some of its members joining the Purim Shpiel “rabble” on March 15. Then on April 16, Zamarei will visit the Latham School in Brewster where we will lead their monthly non-denominational service. Finally, on Friday May 17, Zamarei will lead the Am HaYam Shabbat service.

Interested in joining us? New members are always welcome. Not a singer but play the guitar, flute, clarinet or keyboard? We would be more than happy for you to play along with us.

AM HAYAM PASSOVER SEDER

Am HaYam will hold a community Seder on the second night of Passover, Saturday, April 20th, 6 PM at the Wellfleet Council on Aging, 715 Old Kings Hwy. The Seder will be led by Judith Sitkin and Linda Pearson.

Reservations are essential as space is limited. Please contact Marsha Dubeau mdubeau300@aol.com or call 508-349-9545 at your earliest convenience, but no later than Friday, April 12th. Please provide the following: How many people in your party (tables of 8), what you are planning to bring for the potluck dinner, and with whom you wish to sit. Seating requests will be honored as best we can.

Please bring a main dish to serve 8, plus a dessert or a side dish (guidelines below). Matzo, gefilte fish, charoset and grape juice will be provided by Am HaYam. A traditional Seder Plate will be placed on each table. If you are gluten-free, please bring your own matzo. NOTE: Because of COA regulations no wine is permitted. Please do not bring your own wine.

Although Am HaYam itself does not keep kosher, we observe the basic laws of kashrut for Passover. We ask that out of respect to our members and guests who do, please do not include the following foods when preparing your potluck contributions: no yeasted wheat flour products, unless marked "Kosher for Passover" (pure nut, potato products, unless marked "Kosher or rice flour is OK). This includes breads, cakes, pie crusts, salad dressings, starch or corn syrup, gelatin, with thickening agents, corn flour, pasta/noodles, salad dressings, K kosher section of your supermarket. In the market, you will find suitable substitutes for baking - cake mixes, matzo cake flour, matzo meal, and prepared desserts. Fresh fruits and vegetables are always kosher and Kosher for Passover unless processed (e.g. cut up and bagged). Vegetarian dishes are welcome as many of our members and guests are vegetarian. Again, do not use regular flour or flour products for thickening. The main course for most Passover Seders is meat (chicken, turkey, brisket, tzimmes with beef), therefore, we discourage dairy desserts or accompaniments. Look for parve non-dairy* creamer to substitute. Soy and almond milk are OK if unsweetened (read the labels). Tofu/tofutti is allowed. FORBIDDEN: Pork (in any form including bacon bits in salad dressings) and all shellfish. *Not all non-dairy products are parve; please check for the "parve" notation.

We are always looking for more volunteers to help with set up and clean up. Please contact Arlene Cohen at arlskc@comcast.net or 508-255-4509 or Shira Sands at shira77@bc.edu or 508-349-1784.

HOLOCAUST MEMORIAL PROGRAM

After the events in Pittsburgh and other violent incidents, the Holocaust Memorial Committee believes we need to do more this year than just "remember." We believe we need to take some action to address the rise in hate towards anyone who is different. Therefore, we have engaged a speaker from the Anti-Defamation League as one of our "main" events to discuss "The State of Hate in Massachusetts and What We Can Do." The speaker will present on Monday, April 29, 2019 at 7 pm at Nauset Regional Middle School in Orleans.

During that same week and the week preceding, we will be organizing other events, including our traditional candle lighting, and perhaps a panel on being "different" on Cape Cod. We will keep you posted as our series of events takes firmer shape.

STONE SOUP SUPPER: Call for Am HaYam Members to Attend!

A devoted group has been meeting to plan an interfaith pot luck supper called "Stone Soup" after the charming fable that will be read at our event, Tuesday, April 30, 5-8 PM, at Church of the Holy Spirit. Several different congregations are represented, and we are now calling upon members of Am HaYam to come forward and join us at the supper and contribute some delicious entrees and desserts to the meal.

What does it mean to be part of an interfaith community? Will "breaking bread" together help us to become closer to interfaith exchange and understanding? Elizabeth Alexander, President Obama's inaugural poet, says, "Critical thinking develops when you go outside of your comfort zone, when you eat a different bread from the one you grew up with."

Shortly after Easter and Passover, we will be enjoying a meal together, including the Stone Soup, and we will learn how our foods—both unique and similar—have the potential to bind us as an interfaith community. A speaker will present some important highlights.

Kindly contact Sharon Leder by e-mail Sharon.teichmangallery@gmail.com or phone 914-204-4487 to let her know if you would like to be included as an active participant in this venture. Together in February and March we will design the foods we will contribute to the meal and which we will enjoy eating together with others at our event. Each congregation is asked to be represented by 7-8 people. This project is encouraged by the Nauset Interfaith Association of which Am HaYam is an active member.

INTERFAITH JUSTICE COMMITTEE

The Interfaith Justice Committee of the Federated Church of Orleans and Am HaYam needs additional members to address issues of local, national and international importance to us all.

The Committee meets on the third Thursday of the month at The Federated Church from 1:30 to 3:00 PM. If interested and available, please contact Renate Wasserman at renate-was@gmail.com or Marcia Goffin at mgoffin10@gmail.com.

GETTING TO KNOW MEMBERS OF THE AM HAYAM COMMUNITY

Member profile: Ruth Shapiro

Ruth describes herself as having had a “checkered” past. That sounds a bit nefarious, but she is describing the many times she took new positions. Though she had no or little previous experiences, she was able to meet the demands of these different, exciting opportunities. Anyone who knows Ruth would not be surprised to learn that she met those challenges with courage and spirit, succeeding because of her intelligence, her artistic skills, her respect for people and her willingness to work hard and be open to new challenges. The only time she really felt nervous about a new position was years later when she agreed to become the president of Am HaYam from 2012 thru 2014; the main problem being her lack of knowledge of Robert’s Rules of Order.

Ruth grew up in Newton, Massachusetts. After she finished high school, she chose to go to Boston University where she majored in Art. After graduation, she went to New York City to work for a division of Hallmark greeting cards. After a year in New York, she was needed at home and returned to Massachusetts. She got a job at Raytheon making drawings (schematics) for a project so hush-hush that she had to get a security clearance and everyone worked on just one small part of the project, not knowing what others were doing or what the whole thing even was. It was not the most inspiring environment to work in. Ruth’s next job was working for Massachusetts Department of Education, organizing classes and running an art correspondence course for people in prison. Many of the pictures that were sent to Ruth were mirrors of the minds of the inmates. And many of the people showed an enormous amount of talent. With them, Ruth felt that she made some progress as the individuals taking the course were dedicated to follow directions leading to improved artistic skills.

In 1958, Ruth married Dan Shapiro and they settled in Newton where their first child, Suzy, was born, followed eighteen months later by their son Jeffrey. Ruth had a friend who was working as a copywriter at Jordon Marsh Department Store in Boston. They decided to combine their skills and open their own small advertising agency. By taking small jobs that larger agencies did not want to bother with and using new printing technologies that were available the business grew and was eventually purchased by a New York agency. Dan was always supportive of Ruth and helped in every way. When the children were in high school, she wanted to be with them when they came home from school and to be available for family vacations. The ideal position would be teacher so she switched careers again and taught children with learning disabilities at a junior high in Newton. After five years, Ruth followed up on a tip and was hired to be marketing director for Gloria Stevens fitness salons. Finally, Ruth found the area in advertising that she loved...developing new markets. After some time, she agreed to a position with a firm that made institutional furniture for mental health facilities. First, she was sales manager, overseeing a staff of 45 men. Quickly, sales women were added to the staff. She became marketing director and opened sales in correctional institutions; visiting Architects for Criminal Justice all over the U.S and supervising installations in many prisons all around the country. At this point, Ruth and Dan were living in Florida. Retirement was not in their bones. Ruth continued as a consultant and Dan, because of his background in steel, became Ruth's partner in supplying Florida with steel beds and rotationally molded vinyl chairs for jails, detention centers, and prisons.

When Ruth was growing up, her family belonged to Temple Emanuel in Newton. She remembers the topic she was given for her confirmation speech. It was the 10th Commandment, "Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's ass." Even at that young age she showed her grit and won a prize for her speech. When she and Dan lived in Newton, they were among the founders of Temple Beth Avodah where Suzy was the first to be a Bat Mitzvah. Dan was the first Membership Chairman and Ruth designed the needlepoint tapestries made by the congregants. Nearly 40 years ago, Dan and Ruth bought their house in Brewster as a summer place.

One summer, Ruth saw a havurah that was just meeting at the Chapel in Pines. Dan and Ruth were so intrigued. Dan and Ruth were so though they were planning to move here full time, Renate Wasserman invited her to attend an Am HaYam Board meeting. She thought it was a wonderful group where she could make her Jewish home. She had always regretted that she never learned to read Hebrew, so she studied with Gene Saklad and adult B'not Mitzvah class. When Ruth was asked to be president of Am HaYam, she did what she always did. She said, "Yes." She has said that in the past, whenever she took on new, unfamiliar responsibilities, she could do it because she knew she could count on Dan's support. This time she did it on her own and with great success and personal pleasure ... and much help from the Board. Additionally, Ruth has served on the combined Justice Committee of the Federated Church and Am HaYam. Under that umbrella, she also worked on the Refugee Committee which works with a refugee resource center in Worcester offering resources to help refugees get settled in the area. She also belongs to Sisters of Abraham, a group of Jewish, Muslim and Christian women dedicated to seeking friendship and understanding between the religions. Saying "YES" has always helped Ruth find the place where she wanted to be.

How can we live a meaningful life?

Please bring your rich and creative thoughts to this discussion.

At age 40 Tova decided to leave her husband and her faith. She strikes out on her own to discover what she believes and who she really is. This will entail forging a new way of life, not just for herself, but for her children, who are struggling with what the divorce and her new status as “Not Orthodox” means for them. This program will be on June 20. Thank you.

THE PLAY READING GROUP

Our next meeting of The Play Reading Group will be on Monday, March 4th, 12:30 PM at the home of Arline Lowenthal, 40 Debs Hill Road, Yarmouth Port.

We will be reading A Small Family Business by Alan Ayckbourn. It was first performed at the National Theater in June 1987. It then opened in April 1992 at The Music Box Theater in New York City.

About the play: England's master of satire is in top form in this comic morality play. Jack McCracken has the opportunity of a lifetime. He is the new head of a family business and believes he can initiate a new age of honesty and integrity. He quickly learns that everyone else involved in the enterprise has a vested interest in maintaining business as usual, rife with dishonesty and deceit.

Please come and see how the story develops and how our actors, with their enthusiasm, make it come alive.

ALL MEN AND WOMEN ARE WELCOME! NO EXPERIENCE NECESSARY! YOU CAN BE ON EITHER SIDE OF THE CURTAIN, AS A SPECTATOR OR AN ACTOR!

Please check with the Clams Library System for availability of the play, or purchase it inexpensively at amazon.com, Abebooks.com or powell.com.

Our main source is The Jewish Study Bible, but any Jewish Bible in English may be used. Many of our members also bring commentaries of one sort or another.

Our next meeting will be on Tuesday, March 26, 2-4 PM, at the home of Judi Sitkin in Harwich. If you wish to be added to the WTS email list, contact me at rebecabolmes@comcast.net.

Also, if you have never studied Torah (which actually means the entire Jewish canon), give it a try. All you need to do is to be able to read English and have an inquiring mind.

HINENI OUTREACH GROUP

The meaning of Hineni is "Here I Am." The members of our group are here to help during times of sickness and bereavement. We want to reach out when someone needs help and wants help. If you need of assistance, please "reach in" for our help. If you know someone who might benefit from our help, let us know and we will ask them if they would like some assistance.

Ruth Shapiro is coordinating the Hineni efforts. Please don't hesitate to call Ruth at 508-896-3573 if you have any questions, wish to be a Hineni volunteer, or need help. We are here...HINENI!

Often people are reluctant to ask for assistance. If you know of someone who may be in need, please call Ruth. We want to help.

HEBREW CLASS

Many of us say the prayers by rote, or we follow the transliteration. But, we don't actually read together with the group. Many, or most of us, hear Torah but can't follow the meaning. Sure, we might read the translation but it's usually of limited value. You can change those limitations, by joining our Hebrew Class. Enhance your reading ability, develop your understanding, enjoy the comraderie; we're a delightful group.

We invite you to join us. Call 508-255-5419. L'hitraot.
