SHABBAT SERVICES

Shabbat services usually are held on the 1st and 3rd Fridays of the month, followed by an Oneg Shabbat. Please bring refreshments, such as baked goods and fruit, for the Oneg Shabbat which will follow the service. Wine, challah, and beverages are supplied by Am HaYam. Services are led by members of the Havurah and each service is different depending on the leader's orientation. If you wish to lead Shabbat services, please contact Judy Keller at jkelle47@verizon.net.

SHABBAT SERVICES

Friday, October 4
No service

Friday, October 18
Shabbat/Simhat Torah Service
Led by Cantor Bruce Malin

If you see someone enter the service that you do not recognize, please introduce yourself and welcome him/her to services and to Am HaYam.

The Federated Church is fully handicap accessible with plenty of parking, with both regular and handicap spaces.

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENTS

If you are reading these words, you are a member of Am HaYam. If you wish to attend High Holy Day Services with us this year, you are fortunate. You don't need a ticket. Just arrive at our services this Sunday at The Federated Church of Orleans on Main Street. You will find the schedule of services elsewhere in this newsletter. Those of us who have been living on Cape Cod for any number of years and regularly attend Am HaYam services tend to forget that this is not the norm. But it is for this Havurah. All our services are free and open to the public. This is not the case once you cross the bridge, or even once you leave Orleans.

But we are here and ready to welcome you to our High Holy Day Services. Please join us. As we enter the "Days of Awe" or "The Ten Days of Repentance," we traditionally reflect on the sins we have committed during the past year and then ask for forgiveness both from God and from those we have wronged. This may be your time to make that phone call, write that letter or give to that charity that you overlooked.

Rosh Hashanah combines the joys of a New Year's celebration and its opportunity for renewal with the seriousness of confronting our failings before Yom Kippur. But on Rosh Hashanah we concentrate on the sweetness of life and the opportunity to get rid of our sins. After services on Rosh Hashanah some of us join Rabbi Deanna Douglas for Tashlikh by symbolically throwing bread crumbs, representing our sins, in a local pond. Some of us start our next meal with apples dipped in honey, symbolizing our hope for a sweet New Year.

And then we ready ourselves for Yom Kippur, our holiest day of the year. Those of us who are able fast from sunset on Yom Kippur eve till sunset the next day. It has become the custom at Am HaYam to use our fast day to feed the hungry. Twenty years ago at a board meeting when my late husband George was president, Carol and the late Stephen Roth suggested we use this day to collect food for the Lower Cape Outreach Council which has pantries on the Lower and Outer Cape to feed the hungry. The board agreed. Carol and Stephen took this project as their own and through their efforts the Havurah has donated many tons of food to LCOC. They know we are coming and count on us to fill their shelves this time of year. Very sadly we lost Stephen last year. Deb and Jon Cline stepped up to continue our food drive. Read how you can contribute elsewhere in this newsletter.

Following the solemn Days of Awe, the Jewish people turn to joy on Sukkot (Sunday, October 13) also known as the Feast of Booths, commemorating the time the Jews spent in the desert on their way to the Promised Land. It has been an Am HaYam tradition to celebrate this festival in the sukkah at the home of Cindy Fox and Stephen Berrick.

The following Friday, October 18, we will conclude our month of festivals and holy days with Simhat Torah, marking the conclusion of the annual cycle of Torah readings and the beginning of a new cycle. Cantor Bruce Malin will conduct our service at The Federated Church of Orleans.

Last month my co-President, Arlene Cohen closed her letter with the suggestion that it is through Teshuvah, Tefillah and Tzedakah, repentance, prayer and charity, that we are able to have a good year. We are repenting before and during the High Holy Days, praying throughout them and expected to do charity all year long.

Charity, our tradition tells us, is not only giving financial aid, but the giving of self.

Am HaYam is a member of the Nauset Interfaith Association and participates in LOCAL (Lower Cape Lunch) which provides a free lunch and a free dinner weekly to neighbors in need. AHY volunteers help prepare and serve these meals.

And in that spirit Arlene and I wish you a good, sweet, peaceful and healthy New Year. L'Shanah Tovah.

Renate Wasserman, Co-President

HIGH HOLY DAYS WITH AM HAYAM

Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur services are held at The Federated Church of Orleans, 162 Main Street, East Orleans. Services will be conducted by Rabbi Deanna Douglas and Cantor Elizabeth Anker. All services are free and open to the public. The building is handicap accessible, air-conditioned and there is plenty of parking.

If you have questions about the High Holy Days, please contact Judy Keller at 508-255-7564 or jkelle47@verizon.net.

SCHEDULE OF SERVICES

- Kol Nidrei, Tuesday, October 8, 7:30 PM
- Yom Kippur, Wednesday, Wednesday, October 9
 - Morning service, 10 AM
 - Afternoon service, 3:30 PM
 - Yizkor* (memorial) service, 5:00 PM (approximately)
 - Followed by Ne'ilah (concluding) service and Havdalah
 - Services conclude at 6:15 PM

PROTOCOL FOR THE HIGH HOLY DAYS

The Ritual Committee has established the following guidelines for High Holy Day services: While the congregation is standing in prayer, no one will be permitted to enter the sanctuary or leave until the congregation is seated. Ushers will be present at the rear of the sanctuary to implement this policy. No exceptions will be made. Because we are a diverse congregation, no one is required to wear a tallit or kippah while holding the Torah, reciting blessings or standing on the bimah. Kippot will be available in the foyer and tallitot will be available on the bimah for those who want them.

BREAK-THE-FAST

Those wishing to break-the-fast before leaving Federated Church are invited to join together in the downstairs vestry for juice and challah. Since many of the participants at our services make alternative arrangements for breaking the fast, the Board of Directors voted to discontinue the larger break-the-fast gathering. We are concerned, however, that everyone who prays with us be able to break the fast with others. If you would like an invitation to join others after the conclusion of Yom Kippur services, please let Arlene Cohen know and she will make the necessary arrangements. You can call her at 508-255-4569 or send an email: arlskc@comcast.net.

SECURITY

The Orleans Police Department will be providing security for all our High Holy Day services.

ANNUAL HIGH HOLY DAY FOOD DRIVE

Each year, during the High Holy Days, Am HaYam conducts a food drive between Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur. We will talk about the importance of this mitzvah during Rosh Hashanah services. This yearly opportunity has been especially meaningful for Am HaYam as it is in keeping with the spirit of the season:

"You cannot do all the good that the world needs, but the world needs all the good that you can do."

As you shop each week between now and the High Holy Days, please consider purchasing a few items for the food bank. This will make it easy for you to set aside a significant amount of food to donate. The food we collect is donated to the Lower Cape Outreach Council which supports food pantries in all the Lower and Outer Cape Cod communities. More families are coming to the local food pantries than ever before. Please consider increasing your donation, as the need for food is growing.

We will be distributing shopping bags at Rosh Hashanah. The bags will have stapled to them a list of foods that LCOC needs. Please return the filled bags on the evening of Kol Nidrei or Yom Kippur Day. There will be a truck into which the bags will go. There will be volunteers to help carry bags from your car if needed.

If you cannot do the shopping but wish to help, please donate to Am HaYam and indicate "Food Drive" on the memo line.

We look forward to seeing you and wishing you a Happy and Healthy New Year. We thank you in advance for your generous contribution.

*Deb and Jon Cline
Co-Chairs*

SUKKOT

Cindy Fox and Stephan Berrick invite you to join them in their Sukkah for Erev Sukkot on Sunday, October 13, 7 PM at their home, 135 Paines Creek Road, Brewster.

SIMHAT TORAH

Am HaYam will observe Simhat Torah on Friday, October 18, 7:30 PM, led by Cantor Bruce Malin. Portions of the Torah will be read by members of Am HaYam. If you would like to be a reader, please contact Shira Sands at shira77@bc.edu or 508-349-1784. She will be happy to give you your portion and answer any questions you may have.

PLAY READING GROUP

The next meeting of The Play Reading Group will be on Monday, October 7th, at the home of Elaine Karp, 1 Compass Drive in Harwich. We Nosh and Shmooze at 12:30 and begin reading at 1:00 and run until 4:00 (Fall hours).

We will read the play Major Barbara by Bernard Shaw. It is a play in 3 Acts which was first presented at the Royal Court Theater in London in November 1905. The play takes place in January 1906. Andrew Undershaft, the main character, is a millionaire armaments manufacturer, who loves money and despises poverty. His estranged daughter Barbara, on the other hand, shows her love for the poor by throwing her energies into her work as a major in the Salvation Army, and sees her father as another soul to be saved. But when the Army needs funds to keep going, it is Undershaft who saves the day with a large check, forcing Barbara to examine her moral assumptions. Are they right to accept money that has been obtained by "Death and Destruction"?

This play is full of lively comedy, which also lends itself to serious debate, which grapples with many moral questions. Major Barbara is one of Shaw's most forward looking plays, brilliantly testing the tensions between religion, wealth and power, benevolence and equality, and metaphors and realities of war.

Please come and see how this play develops and how the "actors" make it come alive with their enthusiasm. ALL MEN AND WOMEN ARE WELCOME! NO EXPERIENCE NECESSARY! YOU CAN COME ON EITHER SIDE OF THE CURTAIN !

Please check with The Clams Library System for the availability of the play, or purchase it inexpensively at amazon.com, abebooks.com or powell.com

RSVP to Elaine Karp at 781-718-3993 or egk50@comcast.net. Please carpool if possible. Thank you.

Tehran Children:
A Holocaust Refugee Odyssey

Mikhal Dekel
Jewish Book Council Author on Tour program
Thursday, October 17, 2019 @ 7:30PM
Federated Church of Orleans

Tehran Children is the extraordinary true story of Polish-Jewish child refugees who escaped the Nazis and found refuge in Iran. Rather than perish in Nazi-occupied Poland, more than a million Jews escaped east to the Soviet Union. There they suffered extreme deprivation in Siberian gulags and “Special Settlements,” and then, once “liberated,” journeyed to the Soviet Central Asian Republics. The majority of Polish Jews who survived the Nazis outlived the war in Uzbekistan and Kazakhstan; some of them continued on to Iran. The story of their suffering, both those who died and those who survived, has rarely been told.

Following the footsteps of her father, one of a thousand refugee children who traveled to Iran and later to Palestine, Dekel fuses memoir with historical investigation in this account of the all-but-unknown Jewish refuge in Muslim lands. Along the way, she reveals the complex global politics behind this journey, discusses refugee aid and hospitality, and traces the making of collective identities that have shaped the postwar world – the histories nations tell and those they forget.

AM HAYAM NEIGHBORHOOD BRUNCHES

Am HaYam is trying something new to get to meet more people in our area, learn more about your interests, and share our experiences and information about being part of this wonderful havurah. We will be offering brunch food and conversation in the comfort of different members' homes in "your neck of the woods." If you live in the areas designated and would like to be included, please call or email the contact person below. We will be scheduling more brunches for other areas in the future. The Brunches are at 10 AM in all locations.

NAUSET INTERFAITH ASSOCIATION

Fr. Ken Campbell will be leading a 4 session study of The Words of My Father, Love and Pain in Palestine by Yousef Bashir (see article below from the New Yorker) on Wednesdays at 5 PM in the Parish Hall at the Church of the Holy Spirit, Orleans, beginning on Wednesday, September 18th*. Yousef Bashir's captivating The Words of My Father is full of youthful exuberance, unlikely adventures, and raw discovery.

Fr. Campbell hopes to spend some time reflecting on the meaning of peace, shalom, and salaam in the Jewish, Christian and Islamic traditions. Please let Fr. Campbell know if you would like to participate at ksbcampbell5050@gmail.com or 413-478-5719. Feel free to share this with others who might be interested, especially those who are Jewish or Islamic.

ADULT EDUCATION

Adult Ed Program: The Survivors: A Story of War, Inheritance, and Healing

Adam P. Frankel

Jewish Book Council Author on Tour program

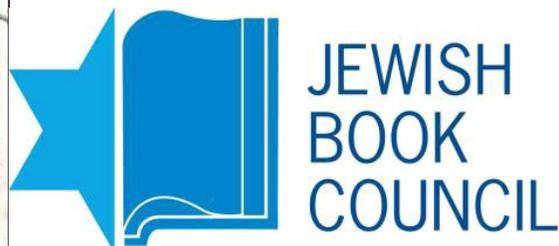

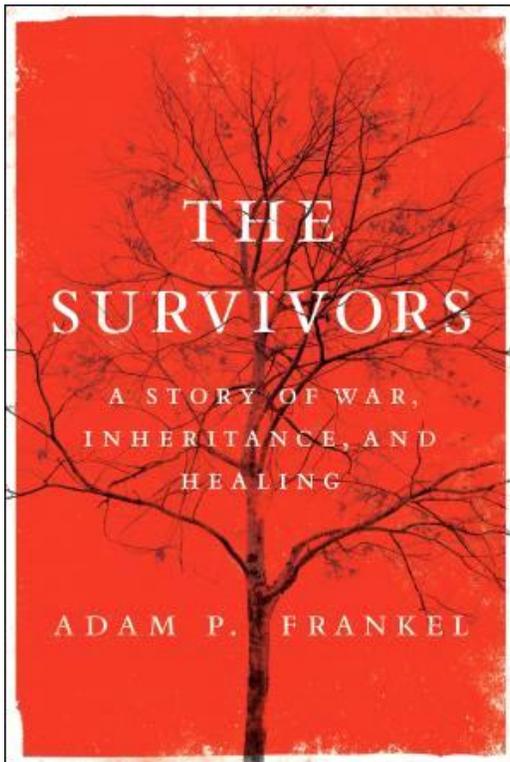

Wednesday, October 30, 2019 @ 7:30PM

Federated Church of Orleans

The Survivors by Adam P. Frankel, a former speechwriter to President Barack Obama, is about the ways the trauma of the Holocaust has reverberated through the generations in his family. Adam's maternal Zayde survived Dachau, among other Nazi camps, while his maternal Bubbie spent much of the war in the woods of Poland with Jewish resistance fighters and Russian partisans.

Though they tried to leave the horrors of their past behind, the pain they suffered crossed generational lines – a fact most apparent in the mental health of Adam's mother. When Adam sat down with her to examine their family history in detail, he learned another shocking secret – this time one that unraveled Adam's entire understanding of who he is. The stories Adam shares with us in The Survivors are about the ways the past can haunt our future the resilience that can be found on the other side of trauma, and the good that can come from things that are unspeakably bad.

INTERFAITH JUSTICE COMMITTEE

The Interfaith Justice Committee met for the first time since the summer on September 19 at the Federated Church from 1:30 to 3pm. The chair, Rod McDonald, called a joint meeting of the Justice Committees of the Church of the Holy Spirit, Community of Jesus, Orleans United Methodist Church, Saint Joan of Arc Parish, Cape Cod Council of Churches Public Policy Committee and our Interfaith Justice Committee. Not all were able to send representatives, but there were three of us from AHY, Karen Back, Jeff Spalter and myself. A good part of the meeting was devoted to Eastham's role in celebrating the 400th anniversary of the Mayflower's arrival at what we now know as First Encounter Beach, which was then part of larger area called Nauset. The Eastham Public Library is presenting many programs on this topic this fall, which can be found on its website. Tom Ryan who presented this topic encouraged all our congregations to become involved in celebrating this historic anniversary. We used this forum to encourage other congregations and the school systems to consider major Jewish Holidays when planning their events.

For more information, or to get involved, contact Rod MacDonald (rodmac.ret@gmail.com).

FAITH COMMUNITY ENVIRONMENTAL NETWORK

After a quiet summer, the faith communities of Cape Cod are looking forward to several events. The most exciting is the Faith and Science forum, "Cape Cod Tackling Climate Change: Taking Action." You are invited to join faith, science, political and advocacy leaders at St. Christopher's Episcopal Church in Chatham to discuss what we can do to protect Cape Cod and the Islands. The Moderator will be Dan Wolf and speakers include Dr. Phillip Duffy from Woods Hole research, Dr. Mary Evelyn Tucker from the Yale forum on Religion and Ecology, and Senator Julian Cyr. The event is free and will take place on Saturday, October 26, from 1:30 to 4:00.

Don't miss the premier of the original play/musical, Crude, The Climate Change Musical being performed at the Cape Cod Theater Co. in Harwich from October 10 - November 10.

The Barnstable Unitarian Universalist Church is hosting a Solar Tour & Sustainability Fair on Oct 5 & 6. The objective of the event is meet with local organizations and businesses about solar energy and includes a tour of over a dozen homes and businesses with solar rooftops. The free event runs from 12-1:30 on Saturday, and 12:30 - 2:30 on Sunday. More information: <https://www.facebook.com/UCBarnstableinAction/>

WOMEN'S TORAH STUDY

The Women's Torah Study group meets monthly year-round on the fourth Tuesday of each month, 2-4 PM, at members' homes. We are now studying the Book of Numbers, Bemidbar. Our goal is to study with more depth, using additional sources from various commentaries to podcasts and internet research. Our main source is The Jewish Study Bible, but any Jewish Bible in English may be used. Many of our members also bring commentaries of one sort or another.

Our next meeting will be on Tuesday, October 22, 2-4 PM, at the home of Ruth Shapiro in Brewster. If you wish to be added to the WTS email list, please contact me at rebeccabholmes@comcast.net.

Rebecca B. Holmes, Facilitator

MEN'S TORAH STUDY

Men's Torah Study will meet on Tuesday, October 22, 2 PM at the home of Richard Dill in Eastham. We will be studying Proverbs.

If you wish to join Men's Torah Study, please contact Robert Pavone at robertpavone@icloud.com

RITUAL COMMITTEE - HELP WANTED

Am HaYam needs you! The Ritual Committee is looking for more members to lead Shabbat Services. Members of the committee will assist you with planning. We have guidelines for Shabbat services and ideas for alternative creative services to share with you. Services can be led by individuals or by groups. We have services in need of leaders. Please email Judy Keller at jkelle47@verizon.net and reserve your date!!!

SUNDAY TORAH STUDY WITH RABBI DEANNA DOUGLAS

Torah Study will not meet in October. The class will resume on November 3.

Last year we studied Ecclesiastes (Kohelet) which centered on ethical behavior and our purpose on earth. This year we return to an in depth look at some individuals who might or might not be role models. Therefore, the (almost) monthly Torah Study will focus on what my teacher, Dr. Rachel Adelman, called Badass Broads of the Bible. As she put it, these are some of the "more audacious females in the Bible." Our first meeting is Sunday, September 8 at the Brewster Ladies Library at 10:30 AM.

I especially invite those of you who think you have to have some special education or background, and who therefore have never or rarely studied Torah. If you can read English, if you can think and respond to the words on the page, you are perfectly suited for Torah study. Those who have come in the past have learned to consider, to listen, to laugh to respond in a meaningful way to the words on the page.

Please bring any variety of Bible or Torah commentary. If you have neither, there are always extra copies. Don't use that as an excuse not to show up!

I look forward to learning with and from you.

Rabbi Deanna Douglas

These are the dates for 2019-2020:

11/3, 12/8, 1/5, 2/2, No March, 4/12, 5/3, 6/14

HEBREW CLASS

Many of us say the prayers by rote, or we follow the transliteration. But we don't read together with the group. Many, or most of us, hear Torah but can't follow the meaning. Sure, we might read the translation but it's usually of limited value. You can change those limitations, by joining our Hebrew Class. Enhance your reading ability, develop your understanding, enjoy the comradery; we're a delightful group.

We invite you to join us. Call 508-255-5419. L'hitraot.

LOCAL (Lower Cape Lunch)

Am HaYam, as a member of the Nauset Interfaith Association, participates in LOCAL, which provides one free lunch and one free dinner weekly to neighbors in need of sustenance and social interaction. AHY provides volunteers on the second Tuesday and fourth Thursday of the month, and we could use more help. Please consider volunteering or serving as backup for one of these shifts, just 1 1/2 to 2 hours a month.

No special cooking ability or heavy lifting is required. You work as part of a team with a coordinator on site. Am HaYam is the only Jewish organization in the Nauset Interfaith Association, and we are committed to participating fully. It's a mitzvah and each volunteer leaves with a good feeling for having given back to our wonderful community. Here are the options:

Second Tuesday Lunch

Cooking and Prep 9:30-11:30; Serving and Clean-up 11:30-1:00

Fourth Thursday Dinner

Cooking and Prep 3:30-5:30; Serving and Clean-up 5:30-7:00

If you are interested or would like more information, please contact Jessica Dill at or 508-255-7771 or jrdill1@comcast.net.

HINENI OUTREACH GROUP

The meaning of Hineni is "Here I Am." The members of our group are here to help during times of sickness and bereavement. We want to reach out when someone needs help and wants help. If you need of assistance, please "reach in" for our help. If you know someone who might benefit from our help, let us know and we will ask them if they would like some assistance.

Ruth Shapiro is coordinating the Hineni efforts. Please don't hesitate to call Ruth at 508-896-3573 if you have any questions, wish to be a Hineni volunteer, or need help. We are here...HINENI!

AM HAYAM DIRECTORY

The Am HaYam Directory has been updated for 2019. If you are NOT in the Directory or need to update any of your information (name(s), address, telephone, email), please send the new information to Jessica Dill, jrdill1@comcast.net. The new Directories were emailed in December. If you did not receive one, contact Jessica at the email above. The Am HaYam Directory is a convenience for members to locate people in your area and contact each other. It is not to be used for mass mailing or solicitations or any other commercial purposes.

MEMBERSHIP

A member is anyone who participates in Am HaYam religious services, programs, and events or who wishes to be on the email mailing list. There are no membership dues. Am HaYam is solely dependent on the generous donations of those who attend our events or who make donations to mark special occasions or to remember loved ones. Mail donations to: Am HaYam, Box 1235, Brewster, MA 02631. If you wish to have a card sent announcing your donation, please include the name and address of the person for whom you are making the donation.
