FROM THE PRESIDENT

Dear Friends:

These are indeed strange and troubling times in our country.

With the exception of the first indigenous peoples, the United States is a country of immigrants. We are descendants of those who fled the discrimination, poverty, and pogroms of Europe and elsewhere and came to America on a crossing that was often harrowing and filled with insecurity and fear.

The empathies we gained from our history are to recognize the beleaguered, the subjugated, and the outsider and identify with their tribulations. We see in them the experiences of our parents, grandparents or great-grandparents. We recognize our common humanity, our deep connection. We acknowledge the pain and loss that they know, and so are directed to put ourselves in their place, to travel in their shoes, to experience their loss, hunger, and fear.

Jewish values of justice, fairness, kindness, love, caring for the weak, and building a better world require us to not turn away from the stranger, not to close our hearts. As the Torah reminds us: "you know the heart of the stranger, for you were strangers in the land of Egypt."

As Jews we know all too well the suffering that occurs when we turn away refugees. We know all too well the disability of discrimination and the harsh unwelcome of the stranger. We must open our doors and our hearts to those who seek refuge from danger and oppression. The American dream of opportunity and progress should be open to all, not just the chosen few.

In 1999, in the process of doing a Yom Kippur Appeal, I mentioned that my paternal grandfather had to escape from Russia because of his revolutionary actions. Fleeing for his life, he arrived in America in 1905. Years later, his great-grandson, my son Howard, found himself on Air Force One, as Communications Director for Hillary Clinton, then First Lady, as she made her first New York campaign for Senator. America was for my family and for millions of others, the land of opportunity, acceptance and blessings.

In 2018, who would have thought our government would give its support to racists while at the same time, plan to deport children who came to this country as our ancestors did with a belief in the American promise of a better life. Who would have thought we would see Nazis marching in the streets of America? Who would have thought that, we again need to remember the teaching of Torah which tells us in Leviticus 19:33-34, And if a stranger sojourn with thee in your land, ye shall not do him wrong. The stranger that sojourned with you shall be unto you as the home-born among you, and thou shalt love him as thyself; for ye were strangers in the land of Egypt: I am the LORD your God.

Let us work to ensure that we keep alive the commitment to be a welcoming nation, a nation that does not bar entry to immigrants, a nation that addresses border security in a humane manner, a nation that provides safety, security and opportunity for all.

Please read the following document from the Interfaith Justice Committee of the Federated Church of Orleans and Am HaYam Havurah, approved for publication in this newsletter at the October 16, 2018 Am HaYam Board meeting. Be moved and be proactive. Open your hearts. Commit yourself to acts of Tikkun Olam.

These are indeed strange and troubling times in our country.

Ira Wolfson

AN APPEAL TO FAITH AND CONSCIENCE REGARDING U.S. POLICY CONCERNING REFUGEES AND IMMIGRANTS

As persons of Jewish and Christian faith traditions, we are compelled to speak on behalf of those who have suffered, and potentially will suffer, from the enactment of the current Administration's policies concerning refugees and immigrants.

We are people shaped by Israel's memory of sojourning in Egypt and laws mandating generosity toward aliens; the story of Ruth the foreigner accompanying her mother-in-law Naomi to Bethlehem and being welcomed among the gleaners; and Jesus' words "I was a stranger and you welcomed me." Furthermore, our churches and synagogues share a heritage of welcoming and resettling refugees over many years. The spirit that motivates us is that of openness and generosity toward our neighbor, not of fears for our own security.

In recent months, we have witnessed the Administration's attitude toward the nation's immigrants and refugees crystallize in its extreme policies, including:

- Zero tolerance for those seeking asylum who cross our nation's borders, resulting in inhumane separation of children from parents and burgeoning detentions and deportations;
- Drastic decrease in the U.S. goal for number of refugees to be received in 2019, with the actual number likely to be many fewer due to the ban on majority Muslim nations and vetting procedures which have been rendered impossibly challenging for many persons;
- Large increases in the arrests, detentions and deportations of unauthorized residents who have committed no crimes, uprooting lives and families;
- Proposed denial of green card legal status to immigrants who receive basic government services (such as nutrition and medical care) that might help them to become self-sustaining. Accepting these services would jeopardize eligibility for permanent residency.

These policies have been promulgated through fear and false claims about the lives of newcomers and their impact upon this country. They have diminished the U.S.'s position of moral authority in the world. The pushback from our elected leaders has been tepid or non-existent to this assault on American values.

Therefore, because we recognize the genuine contributions to our communities and society of immigrants, refugees, asylum-seekers, and those here on Temporary Protected Status:

- We call on Congress finally to enact immigration reform, with sensible border protections, merciful and humane responses to refugees and those seeking asylum, and reasonable policies toward the millions of unauthorized persons living in our midst;
- We call on the Administration to cease the arbitrary arrests, detentions and deportations of persons who have not been convicted of serious crimes;
- We seek and act upon truth and facts, not falsehoods and scare tactics;
- We insist, above all, that documented and undocumented persons alike be treated with the humanity and dignity they deserve.

In summary, we call on all people of faith and good will to work toward moral approaches in responding to this crisis for our nation and world.

INTERFAITH JUSTICE COMMITTEE

In keeping with the mandate of our faith traditions, the Interfaith Justice Committee was formed by members of the Federated Church of Orleans and Am HaYam in response to the Biblical call to “do justice and love mercy.”

On September 13, 2018 we regrouped after a summer hiatus. We are addressing a number of issues and, as always, looking for new members from Am HaYam. For more information please contact Renate Wasserman, renatewas@gmail.com.

GETTING TO KNOW MEMBERS OF THE AM HAYAM COMMUNITY

Member profile: Jessica Dill

Jessica does not beat her own drum, but she is definitely one of the energizers of Am HaYam. She is currently serving her third term on the Board and has always taken on many responsibilities. She was Board Secretary for two years as well as Chair of the Adult Education Committee. She initiated and maintains our Membership Directory. She oversees Am Hayam's participation in LOCAL which provides meals for the needy in the Orleans area. As Chair of the Membership and Education Committees, she organized the first film festival, the Sabbath dinner program, game nights, Community Reads, the arts and crafts exhibit and other social events. She never hesitates to roll up her sleeves and help with whatever is needed. She became an adult Bat Mitzvah in 2017 after studying with Rabbi Douglas.

Jessica can claim dual citizenship in New York and Connecticut. She spent her childhood in Brooklyn. Then her family moved to Syracuse when she was nine. Before her senior year in high school, they moved to Stamford, Connecticut and she went on to study at the University of Connecticut in Storrs from which she graduated with a degree in English and Education.

Her first job was in Boston in the Northeastern University for a

ing. A distinguished gentleman, professor and became her practicum her future husband. After getting Mass. Division of Employment on to become the Education Direcfinance industry. She enrolled at Masters in Community Counsel-Richard Dill, was an adjunct pro-instructor. That is how she met her degree, Jessica worked for the Security as a counselor. She went tor of The Boys Clubs of Boston.

She oversaw their library, tutoring and educational enrichment programs and wrote grants to support the programs. Her next positions were Director of Career Services and Co-op Education at Bunker Hill Community College, NYNEX Yellow Pages in human resources and then State Street Corporation as Vice President for Management and Professional Development.

Jessica and Richard lived in Newton and belonged to a havurah at Brandeis University. She had grown up in an Orthodox home that included her grandmother. They kept kosher and lived within walking distance of an Orthodox Synagogue. Jessica attended Hebrew School and Sunday School. At the age of 15, she took the New York State Regents test for Hebrew and received two language credits. She still observes a modified Kashrut.

Jessica's activities include hiking, biking, swimming, mah jongg, bridge, and book clubs. She serves as Chair of an Eastham town committee and volunteers at LCOC.

Jessica and Richard had vacationed on the Cape and loved it, but Am Hayam was an important factor in their decision to make it their retirement home. Lucky for us!

ZAMAREI HAYAM - Singers of the Sea

Looking back at our November 2017's Newsletter article, I see that it focused on the upcoming B'not Mitzvah of five women on November 11 and Zamarei's role in their ceremony. Now, a year later, Zamarei again will help by supporting the music, this time for their Shabbat service on November 2, as these women celebrate the anniversary of their B'not Mitzvah.

Please feel comfortable calling on Zamarei HaYam when you are running a service. We can help you choose melodies and/or just be there to add more voices as those melodies are sung in the service.

The Women's Torah Study group meets monthly year-round on the fourth Tuesday of each month, 2-4 PM, at members' homes. We are now studying the Book of Leviticus (Vayikra). Our goal is to study with more depth, using additional sources from various commentaries to podcasts and internet research. Our main source is The Jewish Study Bible, but any Jewish Bible in English may be used. Many of our members also bring commentaries of one sort or another.

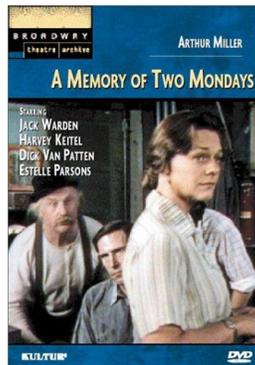

Our next meeting will be on Tuesday, November 27, 2-4 PM, at the home of Deb Cline, Harwich. If you wish to be added to the WTS email list, contact me at rebecabolmes@comcast.net.

A discussion will follow the reading of the play.

ROSH CHODESH WOMEN

Our next meeting will be on Thursday, November 15th. 7:30 PM at the home of Jessica Dill, 35 Sands Road, Eastham. Jessica will be showing the film Mary and Max, a 92-minute animated film that chronicles a pen-pal relationship between Mary Dinkle, a chubby, lonely eight-year-old with an unfortunate birthmark on her forehead living in the suburbs of Melbourne, Australia, and Max Horovitz, a morbidly obese, 44-year-old Jewish atheist with Asperger's Syndrome who resides amidst the chaos of New York City – two social outcasts. Though living entirely different lives, they bond over their mutual eccentricities and isolation. The film chronicles the lives of Mary, who grows up to become a successful writer, and Max, who grows from middle to old age. Over their years of communication, they offer each other support, advice and the opportunity to see life in a different perspective. Although they never have a chance to meet in person, their letters form the basis of one of the truest friendships ever portrayed on screen. The film won awards as best animated feature film, best direction in a feature film, and grand prize in the Ottawa International Animation Festival.

RSVP to Jessica at 508-255-7771 or jrdill1@comcast.net by November 9 as space is limited. Please carpool if possible.

*Note: 4th Thursday

The book that was chosen for this new season is The Book of Separation by Tova Mirvis. It's a memoir about the author's life as an Orthodox Jew and then separating from Orthodoxy. At age 40 Tova decided to leave her husband and her faith. She strikes out on her own to discover what she does believe and who she really is. This will entail forging a new way of life, not just for herself, but for her children, who are struggling with what the divorce and her new status as "Not Orthodox" mean for them.

Tova was a speaker some months ago for an Adult Ed. Program for Am HaYam. This program will be on June 20. Thank you.
