SHABBAT SERVICES

Shabbat services usually are held on the 1st Friday of the month, followed by an Oneg Shabbat. Please bring refreshments, such as baked goods and fruit, for the Oneg Shabbat which will follow the service. Wine, challah, and beverages are supplied by Am HaYam. Services are led by members of the Havurah and each service is different depending on the leader's orientation. If you wish to lead Shabbat services, please contact Judy Keller at jkelle47@verizon.net.

SHABBAT SERVICE
Friday, November 1
Led by B'not Mitzvah Class of 2017

If you see someone enter the service that you do not recognize, please introduce yourself and welcome him/her to services and to Am HaYam.

The Federated Church is fully handicap accessible with plenty of parking, with both regular and handicap spaces.

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENTS

Cantor Bruce Malin opened our recent Simchat Torah service with the remark that the Torah he was reading from that night was the same one he read from 50 years ago when he was a Cantor at the Tremont Temple in the Bronx. What a strange coincidence - or not so strange?

Some years ago my late husband, George, paid a visit to our former synagogue, Scarsdale Synagogue and its then Rabbi Steven Klein. George mentioned that we were now members of a Havurah on Cape Cod which was in need of a Torah and did Scarsdale have one they would like to lend us? Rabbi Klein brought the request before his Board. It just so happened that Tremont Temple closed some years earlier and merged with Scarsdale Synagogue and brought its Torahs. So our old Synagogue had lots of Torahs, including the one the Board agreed to donate to AHY. This Torah, which we used at Simchat Torah and the High Holy Days is from Europe and over 350 years old. When the call came that this Torah was ours, who volunteered to drive to Westchester to bring it to its new home? Judy Keller.

Judy, who is chairperson of our Ritual Committee and also my friend and neighbor, is the facilitator behind every service at AHY. She is also a past president of AHY. She is the person who sets the stage so that each service runs smoothly. She must be exhausted after this last month when we had the major services of Yom Kippur and Simchat Torah. We all thank her for her loving dedication to her AHY family. But of course she had some help. On behalf of the Board of Directors of Am HaYam, I want to thank and recognize all that assistance.

First there is the set up. Our beautiful Ark and our sets of Machzorim are kept in storage. They need to be moved out of and later back into that facility. The sanctuary of The Federated Church needs to be refitted for our services. Stephan Berrick, with his truck, has been in charge of this crew for years. His helpers included: Paul Biegelson, Richard Dill, Dick Bernstein, Michael Nadelberg, Don Bachman, Michael Andrews and of course, Judy Keller. AHY very much appreciates all the effort each of the aforementioned puts in to enable each of the rest of us to just take our seats.

Once the stage is set, the congregation assembles. This year for the first time, we felt the need to arrange for security. Don Bachman so ably worked with the Orleans Police to make that happen. Richard Dill has over the years assembled a team of ushers to greet, welcome and guide congregants to their seats when needed. They also answer questions, guard our collection box, collect and pack books at the end of services. The team includes Jessica Dill, Naomi and Michael Nadelberg, Fran and Robert Pavone, Bob Gordon, Gail and Bob Melson, Skipper Edwards Silberberg, David Silberberg, Jane Dorval, Allan Saperstein, Irwin and Helen Sitkin, Barry Worth, Dick Bernstein and Deborah Smulian. On behalf of AHY, we thank each of you for your part in our HHD services.

How lucky we are to have Rabbi Deanna Douglas with us for the 17th year and Cantor Liz Anker for the 10th, as well as our accompanist, Bonnie Donham for the first time. They, together with our Zamarei, led by Mim Selig, brought us into the New Year with a feeling of renewal and hope.

While we fast on YK we take the opportunity to feed the hungry. This is the second year that Jon and Deb Cline took over this program from Carol and the late Stephen Roth, who performed this service for us and the Lower Cape Outreach Council for 20 years. We are grateful to Deb and Jon for again enabling AHY to donate tons of food to LCOC. Of course they can't do it alone. Those who helped in various capacities are Jane Dorval and Al Saperstein, Don and Andy Bachman, Karen Back, Jessica and Richard Dill, Linda Pearson, Rob Pavone, Bob Gordon, Andrea and Tim Reed, and Tova and Tony Soyt.

Just a few days after YK we celebrated Sukkot at the home of Cindy Fox and Stephan Berrick. Joyously enjoying this holiday at the airy, beautifully decorated Sukkah at the Berrick's with their family has been an AHY tradition. This year we filled the Suk- kah to the brim with our largest attendance. We all had the opportunity to shake the Lu-lav and Etrog, say the blessings, drink warm cider and partake of delicious sweets. Thank you Cindy and Steve. We all look forward to next year.

Marilyn Schlansky reminded me about a Nauset Interfaith Association program, Food4Kids, run every summer to feed hungry children on Cape Cod. I since learned that Judy and Myron Taylor and Cheryl Dockser also participated in this program last summer. Anyone else? There will be more information next spring when many more AHY members may sign up.

As we head into fall and winter some of our regular members are heading to southern climates. We will miss them and wish them good health and a speedy return. AHY continues with our many activities and one service a month for the interim.

Arlene Cohen and I wish you all good health and peace in the months ahead. Shalom.

Renate Wasserman, Co-President

ZAMAREI HAYAM - SINGERS OF THE SEA

During the High Holy Day services this year we were delighted to have Bonnie Donham accompany Zamarei HaYam on the piano. Bonnie also accompanied Cantor Elizabeth Anker. I was surprised at how much the piano added to the fullness of the sounds of Zamarei HaYam and Cantor Anker. Cantor Anker's voice sounded even richer than in previous years! Hopefully Bonnie will join us again next year.

A big thank you to the Zamarei members who made the commitment to attend extra rehearsals and learn some beautiful new music - Arlene Cohen, Judy Keller, Linda Pearson, Greg Sands, Shira Sands, Marilyn Schlansky, Peter Selig, Judi Sitkin, Len Solomon, Lyn Solomon, and Sherill Stott. They sang beautifully during each of the high holy day services! And of course, new members are always welcome!

WOMEN'S TORAH STUDY

The Women's Torah Study group meets monthly year-round on the fourth Tuesday of each month, 2-4 PM, at members' homes. We are now studying the Book of Numbers, Bemidbar. Our goal is to study with more depth, using additional sources from various commentaries to podcasts and internet research. Our main source is The Jewish Study Bible, but any Jewish Bible in English may be used. Many of our members also bring commentaries of one sort or another.

Our next meeting will be on Tuesday, November 19, 2-4 PM, at the home of Marilyn Schlansky in East Harrwich. If you wish to be added to the WTS email list, please contact me at rebeccabholmes@comcast.net.

PLAY READING GROUP

The next meeting of The Play Reading Group will be on Monday, November 4th, at the home of David and Shira Sands, 45 Capt. Bellamy Road in Wellfleet. We Nosh and Shmooze at 12:30 and begin reading at 1:00 and run until 3:00 (winter hours).

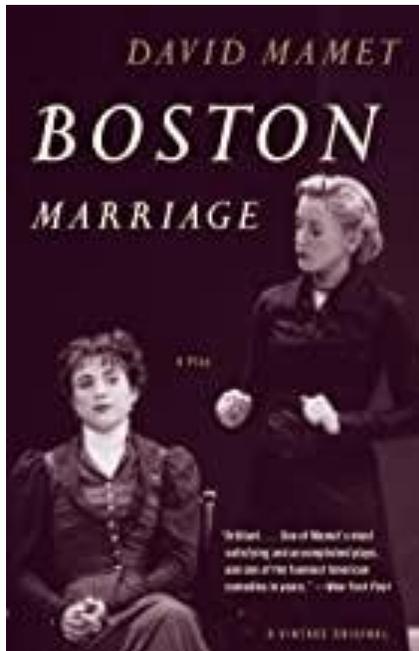

We will continue reading (the third act) of the play Major Barbara by Bernard Shaw. Please read up to the third act if you were not present at the October meeting. You will find further information about this play in the October Newsletter and in previous e-mails. A discussion of this play will follow the reading.

If time permits, we will read Boston Marriage by David Mamet. This is a comedy of errors set in a Victorian drawing room. Anna and Claire are two bantering women, scheming “women of fashion” who have long lived per class society. Anna has wealthy man and Claire, a respectable young lady. ROSH CHODESH WOMEN

Our next meeting will be on Thursday, November 21, 7:00* PM at the home of Jessica Dill, 35 Sands Road in Eastham. Jessica will also be the facilitator. Our program is the film Doing Jewish: A Story from Ghana. RSVP to Jessica Dill at 508-255-7771 or jrdill1@comcast.net.

Who would expect to find Jews in Ghana? Not Gabrielle Zilkha, for sure. But when she volunteered to work in Africa and found herself a lone Canadian Jew awash in a sea of Christians as the Jewish New Year approached, that's exactly what happened. In remote Sefwi Wiawso, Ghana, she made a stunning connection with a group of people, dedicated and devoted, who practiced special rites including circumcision and keeping Kosher dietary laws and had done so for centuries. Only recently had they discovered they were part of a worldwide religion with millions of followers of Judaism. Doing Jewish: A Story from Ghana is the story of the lives of the Sefwis' and their efforts to forge ties with other Jews worldwide. We meet their leader, Alex Armah, who dreams of achieving official status for his tiny congregation. Zilkha explores the meaning of Judaism, consulting experts from New York, Montreal, Toronto and Miami and delves into the Sefwis' history along the way. Made over the course of five years, this film is a tribute to the bond created since that first Jewish holiday. It's a warm and fascinating study of Judaism and belonging.

*NOTE: CHANGE OF TIME from 7:30 PM to 7 PM. Thank you. Please carpool if possible.

LOCAL (Lower Cape Lunch)

Am HaYam, as a member of the Nauset Interfaith Association, participates in LOCAL, which provides one free lunch and one free dinner weekly to neighbors in need of sustenance and social interaction. AHY provides volunteers on the second Tuesday and fourth Thursday of the month, and we could use more help. Please consider volunteering or serving as backup for one of these shifts, just 1 1/2 to 2 hours a month.

No special cooking ability or heavy lifting is required. You work as part of a team with a coordinator on site. Am HaYam is the only Jewish organization in the Nauset Interfaith Association, and we are committed to participating fully. It's a mitzvah and each volunteer leaves with a good feeling for having given back to our wonderful community. Here are the options:

Second Tuesday Lunch

Cooking and Prep 9:30-11:30; Serving and Clean-up 11:30-1:00

Fourth Thursday Dinner

Cooking and Prep 3:30-5:30; Serving and Clean-up 5:30-7:00

If you are interested or would like more information, please contact Jessica Dill at or 508-255-7771 or jrdill1@comcast.net.

INTERFAITH JUSTICE COMMITTEE

At the October meeting of the Interfaith Justice Committee, our own Elaine Baskin shared her concerns for the plight of Hispanic workers who had been recruited to work at $5 an hour wages at local poultry processing plants in Canton, Mississippi and were then victims of an Immigration Customs Enforcement raid last August. They were herded onto buses and sent to detention camps, leaving their families adrift. Some were later released with ankle bracelets, but not allowed to work. Others are still detained. All the families are in dire circumstances. For more information contact Elaine at ejbaskin@yahoo.com.

Other areas under consideration are: Anti-Semitism on the Cape, gun violence prevention, faith and politics in an election year, Safe Communities, and recently proposed restrictions to SNAP programs.

Our representatives are: Judy Taylor, Karen Back, Elaine Baskin, Marcia Goffin, Jeff Spalter and Renate Wasserman.

FOOD DRIVE

The Annual High Holy Day Food Drive was very successful. The truck will full by end of Yom Kippur. In addition, funds donated for the Am HaYam food drive totaled $4540.00 plus $300 in gift cards. Total donations were $4840.00.

Please call Jon Cline at 203-461-5450 or email me at secondwind145@gmail.com if you are able to come and help shop at the Stop and Shop in Orleans on Friday, November 1, at 9AM. We will shop, load our cars and take the food over and unload it all at the Lower Cape Outreach Council. It is great to be able to help those in need. HINENI OUTREACH GROUP

The meaning of Hineni is "Here I Am." The members of our group are here to help during times of sickness and bereavement. We want to reach out when someone needs help and wants help. If you need of assistance, please "reach in" for our help. If you know someone who might benefit from our help, let us know and we will ask them if they would like some assistance.

Ruth Shapiro is coordinating the Hineni efforts. Please don't hesitate to call Ruth at 508-896-3573 if you have any questions, wish to be a Hineni volunteer, or need help. We are here...HINENI!

FAITH COMMUNITY ENVIRONMENTAL NETWORK

Take the Zero Waste Challenge

We live surrounded by trash, especially single-use plastic. It's in our homes, schools, restaurants, offices, communities, and the environment.

Manufacturers and brand owners have created this throw-away culture by mass-producing disposable goods. But when it comes time to deal with all that waste, we are the ones who pay the price – and not just because more and more of our tax dollars must now go towards trash and recycling management. Our waste pollutes our land, water, and air; threatens the health of our communities; and adds to the climate crisis.

Reforming any system begins with educating ourselves and the people around us – and that's what we plan to do with the first-ever Zero Waste Challenge. For one week, November 3–9, we are challenging you to reduce your trash (and recycling) in your home, your office, and your community. By joining our Challenge, you'll discover tricks of the trade to living a zero-waste lifestyle, while also learning about long-term solutions for creating a more sustainable, zero-waste future across New England. What does a waste-free lifestyle entail?

Going Zero Waste Means:

- Using reusable containers wherever possible
- Buying in bulk when you can to avoid plastic packaging
- Ditching disposable drinkware and investing in reusable bottles
- Bringing your own tote bags when grocery shopping
- And more!

GETTING TO KNOW MEMBERS OF THE AM HAYAM COMMUNITY

Member profile: Sandy Chernick

The American Heritage Dictionary gives the informal definition of the term “sparkplug” as “a person who gives life or energy to an undertaking.” Sandy has been a spark plug for Am HaYam since she joined. Her leadership gave “life and energy” to our 25th anniversary party, a grand bash featuring a catered dinner and live music that brought together over one hundred members, old and new, to celebrate our havurah.

It was Sandy’s idea to have the AHY art show, which highlighted the creativity, talent and skills of our members. Her idea to explore what it means to be a Jew, what Am HaYam means to its members and how to make AHY a richer experience, led to her planning and organizing a three part series of very meaningful discussions for the many who attended.

Sandy grew up in the Bronx, (“the best borough of NYC”) in an Orthodox family that sent her to school at the Orthodox Yeshiva, Zichron Moshe Beis Yaakov. About sixty years later, she and Bob Gordon realized they had both gone to that same little school. On her father’s side, her childhood experience of being a Jew was traditional Orthodox. Whereas on her maternal side, although she saw that her grandmother’s and her favorite uncle’s kindness and charity embodied the values of a good Jew and they kept kosher, they did not belong to a synagogue and Sandy has no memory of ever seeing them pray. Her ambiguity was also fueled by what she saw as a secondary role for women in Judaism. These conflicting elements led her to a life of spiritual searching.

Despite her 5’2” stature, Sandy was a good athlete. She was captain of her high school volleyball team and New York City tennis champ three years in a row. Later, in college, she was a basketball bench warmer until a new coach, the same height as Sandy, showed her how to use her size to advantage and she became a regular.

After high school, Sandy sailed to Israel on a three -week voyage to attend Bar Ilan University on a scholarship. She was in the school’s first class. It was too Orthodox for her, so she left the school and hitchhiked around Israel for almost a year. She stayed in various kibbutzim, doing childcare, cleaning coops, doing laundry and developing her conversational Hebrew. She returned to New York to work and to attend City College. She changed her major several times until she found her place studying psychology. Studying and working full and part time, it took her seven years to graduate. She spent a lot of time at Hillel House at CCNY and met Judy and Jay Bloom there. Judy’s dad was the Rabbi at Hillel.

After finishing her Bachelors, she went full time to graduate school at Fordham University, and got degrees in psych and social work. She was one of the founders of SAGE, an intergenerational LGBT organization where more able members of the community helped those in need. In the 70’s, when attitudes were hostile to say the least, she started a women’s group for LGBT women over 50. It was there she met Sandi Herschel, her future spouse. However, they had to wait for over 25 years, to marry, until gay marriage became legal in Massachusetts. They were married in June 2004. After 20 years working for New York City, Sandy started her own therapy practice. She founded the Feminist Therapy Collective for practitioners which worked as a referral service and offered support and opportunities for professional development.

Twenty years before moving here, on vacation and thought it might be a here, Sandy worked at the Orleans Joan invited her to an Am HaYam latke they had sour cream AND ap-

Sandy and Sandi came to the Cape good place to retire. After moving COA where she met Joan Saklad. party—"the latkes were good and plesauce." The rest is AHY history.

Sandy has been on the Board of Directors for close to ten years. She feels AHY was becoming Bat Mitzvah ful to them and to Rabbi Douglas the Torah at holiday services with pride and joy. The sparkplug continues to sparkle.

NAUSET INTERFAITH ASSOCIATION

On October 25th, I and 50+ members of Nauset Interfaith boarded a bus for Washington D.C. We were on a pilgrimage to the Smithsonian Museum of African American History and Culture arranged by the MLK action team of Nauset Interfaith. During the ride we watched a film and did a reading of Frederick Douglass' speech "The Meaning of the 4th of July for the Negro". The museum visit was an intensely emotional experience. It took us from the depths of human degradation to the heights of human resiliency, courage, and creativity. Our companions included students from Nauset's Human Rights Academy, and friends and clergy from many Cape towns. (We were joined by former AHY members Marilyn Greenberg and Paula Feinstein who send greetings to all). We sampled foods from several regions of the country where African Americans have created savory cuisines, and mingled with visitors of all colors, sizes and shapes. The trip gave us an opportunity to leave our familiar community on the Cape, and to learn the overlooked stories of our neighbors. Once the truth is seen, it cannot be unseen.
